

LEI Covenant Commitment

Each year, Literacy & Evangelism workers and Board of Trustees reaffirm the LEI Covenant. Please sign both forms below. Keep one in your possession as a reminder. Mail the other to LEI headquarters in Tulsa. Each workday during our daily Bible study and intercession time, headquarters staff will pray for one of the people who are keeping this Covenant with us. Among those signing are:

- a. All Literacy & Evangelism International personnel (including Affiliates)
- b. Members of our Board of Trustees
- c. Candidates and others who wish to keep the Covenant along with us.

This LEI Covenant is to help us to grow in and fulfill the most important area of our lives: personal communion with our Creator, Savior, and Lord Jesus Christ. While times of corporate fellowship and ministry are also important for spiritual formation, it is our personal times of solitude with God that tend to get neglected most in our busy lives. That is why we only address the times of solitude in this Covenant.

As you reaffirm this Commitment each year, please evaluate and share with us any hindrances, obstacles overcome, blessings, testimonies or questions. Write us anything you feel led to share. We are praying for you and trust you also remember us. Let us endeavor to make this hour increasingly meaningful for ourselves and others.

LEI Covenant (send in)

Recognizing that there is nothing so crucial to my life, work and witness as my personal relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ, I covenant with LEI members to give priority in my daily schedule to cultivating this relationship. Thus, I will wholeheartedly purpose and will endeavor to spend an hour or _____ each day in devotional Bible reading and prayer, in solitude with God. This will be a time for personally worshiping God, seeking His guidance, grace, and blessing for myself, my family and others among whom I live, work and witness.
